

Martin C. CAMPION: Bibliography of Game-related Writings

by John Kula

excerpted from Simulacrum magazine #30 (2012)

(submitter's note: I have reordered the titles to be roughly chronological)

Dr. Martin C. Campion was one of the more influential people in the development of the hobby but has maintained a very low profile over the years. He has written many papers and reviews, on gaming as well as his doctoral specialty, and has designed a number of computer simulations.
